Sometimes I wish I were a rockstar
Sometimes I wish I ruled the world.
Sometimes I wish I live in Paris
But then I couldn't be your girl
When you're standing next to me
There's no place else I'd rather be

If I could be anything at all...
I'd be the one you always call
I'd be the one whose arms you run to
When your back's against the wall
If you could be anything to me

You'd be the first thing that I'd see
You'd be my rising sun...
The only one...
To catch me when I fall
If we could be anything
Anything
Anything at all

I see us on the beach together
I could see us dancing on a cloud
Sometimes I wonder what would happen
If I shared what I'm feeling
And I said it out loud...
I got a feeling that you already know
So come a little closer
And I'll tell you so...

If I could be anything at all
I'd be the one you always call
I'd be the one whose arms you run to
When your back's against the wall
If you could be anything to me
You'd be the first thing that I'd see
You'd be my rising sun...
The only one...
To catch me when I fall
If we could be anything
Anything
Anything at all

I'm not looking for the hippest guy on the block
I'm not saying you are
I'm not saying you're not
I don't care about fancy cars or bling
I'm just looking for the one who make my heart sing
When I'm with you
Nothing else seems to matter
It's like I feel from a hole
Having tea with the hatter
And if you didn't know
I'd say it's just about time
To get off your chair
And put you hand in mine
So cool
So chasse
So nonchalant
If there's nothing you need, boy?
Nothing you want?
I've got plans to make
I've got things to do
I just wanna know now
Can I do them with you?

If I could be anything at all
I'd be the one you always call
I'd be the one whose arms you run to
When your back's against the wall
If you could be anything to me
You'd be the first thing that I'd see
If you'd be my rising sun
The only one
To catch me when I fall
If we could be anything
Anything
Anything at all

If we could be anything
Anything
Anything At All
