

Kellin Quinn

"Fall Down, Fall Down"

Visit "Fall Down, Fall Down" on MotoLyrics.com

I can feel you through the fake skin I created
And you still see through the lines that I write
It's more concerning that I fall out of place
I'm searching for the right side of grace
And now I fall down, fall down
I never think I am wrong

So I'm saying how I feel like there's no where to go
So put your hand up for me let me know
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you

I can feel you through the fake skin I created
And you still see through the lines that I write
It's more concerning that I fall out of place
Or tumble over flat on my face
I guess it's my fault
But you see through it all and love me still Love me still

So I'm saying how I feel like there's no where to go
So put your hand up for me let me know
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you
Set us free, set us free, I want you to see that
My heart belongs only to you

I don't understand why the world is so cold,
The worlds so cold
I don't understand why the world is so cold,
The world so cold

Visit Kellin Quinn page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

