Sitting on my own girl
I've had time enough to grow a beard for you
I'm hiding out in cars, yeah
I've been tryna find a way back home to you

These California stars, girl
They've been hanging out
Yeah, hanging out for you
Cause I know that you'll love the man
Whose follicles are growing just for you

Could you find a job for someone
Who don't know the first thing?
Could you find a job for someone
Who don't know the first thing?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I could sit on the fence
Learn self-defense
I could watch some telly
And get real smelly
Oh, I don't know

I could fight a battle
Yeah, shake my rattle
I could sleep, I s'pose
Get bellicose
Oh, I don't know

I could dream of rainbows
Melting ice flows
I could squeeze a melon
Commit a felon
Oh, I don't know

I could meditate, I could mediate
I could pillories, I could plagiarize
I could just survive

I could get in training to be amazing
I could tie myself up
I could set myself free

Have you got a job for someone
Who don't know the first thing?
Have you got a job for someone
Who don't know the first thing?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Sitting on my own girl
I've had time enough to grow a beard for you
'Cause I know that you'll love the man
Whose follicles are growing just for you

I'm hiding out in cars, yeah
I've been tryna find a way back home to you
These California stars, girl

These California stars, girl
Yeah, just for you
