What's on your mind
It takes a while to bring ya down yeah
And all you wanna say
Is how the sky just made you feel fine

Music for your head
Love is for your pain
Drugs for when you're lonely
Polish for your nails
Laughter for the morning
Your time for life, your time for love

What's it today
That makes the world seem so far away
If we drove like this for years
I know I'd never feel this close again

You ask me if I'm kind
Decided I was fine
You said I smoked for England
I said you missed the point
Your cigarette is burning
'Cause I don't have the sense to turn around

La, La, La, la

Dreams on the road
When you know what you've got yeah
So fine for a while
Soon I know you'll have to leave again

But if we take our time
Who knows what we'll find
Sapphire for the morning
Dreams for the night
Days full of laughter
Days full of joy we might find

Dreams on your mind
It takes a while to bring ya down yeah
And all you wanna say

Is what you got and where you going

Music for your head

Love is for your pain

Drugs for when you're onely

Polish for your nails

Laughter for the morning

Your time for life, your time for love

La, la,la, la
