don't break it
just fake it baby
so please won't you lie to me
so i can lie to you
and be fake in love
fake in love

i just wanna take you home and smoke a cigarette put on the radio we'll play regrets
i can pretend i'm yours
you can pretend you're mine

just fake it baby
please won't you lie to me
so i can lie to you
and be fake in love
fake in love

take off that sweater that he gave to you close your eyes and we can fake it's true
i can pretend i'm yours

female: i feel like i've known you forver. so, where did you say you lived?

just
baby yeah please won't you lie to me
so i can lie to you
and be fake in love
fake in love
fake in love
fake in love
