So many lonely nights,
So many doors,
And you phone out the window,
I wanna hear the city below.

So many spaces,
So many smiles,
I think I'm just an actor,
Don't know what I'm after.

A book becomes a dream,
Just passing to the day,
And just hope the ending,
Starts at the beginning.

Welcome to the sun tangled angel revival.
Welcome to the sun tangled angel revival.
You can go anywhere,
And you can see everything,
In the world.

Welcome to the sun tangled angel revival.
Welcome to the sun tangled angel revival.
You can go anywhere,
You can see everything,
And you can know everyone.

Too many lonely nights,
Too many doors,
And you phone out the window,
I wanna hear the pictures in the city below.
