Terminology, Kinetics, One Love
Yeah, ay, ay, up all night
Too much hustle to close my eyes
All these dreams upon my mind
So I stay scheming, yeah
I'm a dreamer, Baby I'm a dreamer
Going with a free quest, you don't sleep neither (Sleep neither)
Yeah, ay we up all night, but I'm still dreaming

I'm taking over, let me make it perfectly clear
This is for my uncle Nelson, cause he got murdered last year
I know you ride around a beemer, blowing purple up there
Hoping to make you proud of me when you see my career
I'm going off, plenty of concerts in different continents Admirers from different countries showering me with compliments
Euros in my accounts just counting them like they counterfeit
Don't they spit on your record, then shred up your speaker money
Dishonestly is was all a dream, then Chris Wallace said Took my dream and I followed that, obviously I body that
But I'll never be sick, regardless of the politics College kids fill up my venues now and ask me to sign their kicks
The time keeps ticking, so the grin keeps sniffing up higher and higher
I'm climbing trying o acquire millions
And this is for my fans that have been waiting so long Be patient, we almost on, it's here, it's your song, let's go!

Yeah, ay, ay, up all night
Too much hustle to close my eyes
All these dreams upon my mind
So I stay scheming, yeah

I'm a dreamer, Baby I'm a dreamer
Going with a free quest, you don't sleep neither
(Sleep neither)
Yeah, ay we up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming

Ash to ash, cause everything in life's a cycle
They praying on my downfall as they recite the bible
But snakes slit up in the grass, acting like disciples
So I live my life to the sight of a sniper's riffle Ah I could go right in for the title, the ring's been crowded
But even when I've been doubted, I been doubted Damn right I been sour Compared to me, everyone in this building is too plane, twin towers
Hustle deep, I sleep like an insomniac
I ain't trying to be 29 and driving a Pontiac
A storm's forming, this is the forewarning
I'm breaking the door storming zorbing like George Foreman
I'll leave you with lacerations, a cast and a bad abrasion
We'll be racing every drag that you pleasing with bastard tracing
I'm basically the '80s President's administration I'm here to get the streets cracked, call it Ronald Reagen

Yeah, ay, ay, up all night
Too much hustle to close my eyes
All these dreams uWon my mind
So I stay scheming, yeah
I'm a dreamer, Baby I'm a dreamer
Going with a free quest, you don't sleep neither
(Sleep neither)
Yeah, ay we up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming
We up all night, but I'm still dreaming
