With my head underwater I can finally see clearly
Here and now it all makes sense to me
I can finally breathe a little easier
But it's too late to change

I never looked back
My head in the wind and my demons on my back
I drove until the road ended and then I flew
The ocean looks so beautiful from here

What a fitting way
To fly,
to fall...
Water surrounds glass walls
I never looked back
My head in the wind and my demons on my back
I drove until the road ended and then I flew
The ocean looks so beautiful from here
It's so beautiful from here
Take me home

I never looked back
My head in the wind and my demons on my back
I drove until the road ended and then I flew
The ocean looks so beautiful from here
