I could reflect all
All these current times of regret
Or I could remember
A road that becomes more solid with every step

Looking over my shoulder now
I'm shaking the dust off of my feet
The past,... with events that held me down
No longer follow me around
Looking over my shoulder now
The silhouette of all these fears will fade
I'm looking over my shoulder
Now I'm comfortable with the distance that's in between

All that you left us
The "sad" but the "sweetest"
Story that's ever told
And now to remember,...
You're Victory over pain I know

Looking over my shoulder now
I'm shaking the dust off of my feet
The past,... with events that held me down
No longer follow me around
I'm Looking over my shoulder now
The silhouette of all these fears will fade
I'm looking over my shoulder
Now I'm comfortable with, the distance that's in
between

Looking over my shoulder (I'm looking over my shoulder now)

Looking over my shoulder now
(I'm looking over my shoulder)

Looking over my shoulder now
