"The Gamble"

Visit "The Gamble" on MotoLyrics.com

Some things have been happening to faith
Changes I can't explain
Because I only heard it in a dream
A belief that's meant for me,
Is it a gamble or belief?

Should I place my only bet
On this "light" I have'nt met?
And will it save me from myself? yes I know
You will flash across the sky
And we won't believe our eyes
Until we remember what you said

That you would never leave us all alone
(You would never leave us)
You are closer than every breath (Closer than every breath)
You're closer than numbers find,... that unravel in our minds
So I'm keeping you in mind

Should I place my only bet
On this "light" I have'nt met?
And will it save me from myself? yes I know
That you will flash across the sky
And we won't believe our eyes
Until we remember what you said

I'll remember what you said

I will remember, just what you said, just what you said

Should I place my only bet
On this "light" I have'nt met
Yes I know
You will flash across the sky
And we won't believe our eyes

We won't believe our eyes
