

LadderSouL "Treasure Hunt"

Visit "Treasure Hunt" on MotoLyrics.com

There are two roads up ahead,
One is bright
And the other is draped in shadows
Without a light
And the first road plays it safe
While the unknown path is only made and "lit up" by your faith

My eyes
Kept me from your SouL
With a treasure full of "fools gold"
Misled by promises of comfort now
And it turned out to be a place
Where my burdens go to escape
From you showing me the way

Now I turn around because I've found
That my cup is and always has been Half full
And faith is showing me that
The "Thirsty man" only sees
A mirage of all his needs

My eyes
Have kept me from your SouL
With a treasure full of "fools gold"
Misled by promises of comfort now
And it turned out to be a place
Where my burdens go to escape
From you showing me the way

The way
