"Trusted Shelter"

Visit "Trusted Shelter" on MotoLyrics.com

Somewhere in the middle of all this chaos,
You are perfectly still Unaffected by the common bond of our misguided wills

You have built this fortress
Around my Heart and Mind
A Trusted Shelter I can return to at any time

Should I look to the mountains to protect me?
I will look to the Maker of all these things

How can there be a future of hope?
When we could never live presently
Constantly demanding progress
With no time to just sit and breathe

You have built this fortress
Around my Heart and Mind
A Trusted Shelter I can return to at any time

Should I look to the mountains to protect me?
I will look to the Maker of all these things

Of all these things

Of all these things
