You're beautiful
But only on the inside
Wonderful
I loved you but I can't lie
You were fine
Til your sister caught my eye

I saw past
The bad cover of your good book
I fell fast
Til I saw how your sister looked
I checked her out that night
And I was hooked

Taking me home was your first mistake
One look at her made my heart ache

Dinner was rad
Had a conversation with your brother
Your mom's a good cook
And she raised a lovely daughter
Can't say I liked your dog
But I can't wait to meet your father
I liked you a lot
But your sister's so much hotter

Sounds so mean
But your sister got the right genes
Seventeen
And so sexy in her tight jeans
You should have known better
Than to let her get near me

It's not fair that
I'm stuck with you
Without a thing to stare at
When we run out of things to say
She's a sight for soar eyes
Your sister's gotta stay

Saying she's single was mistake number two
After I met her how could I want you

Dinner was rad
Had a conversation with your brother
Your mom's a good cook
And she raised a lovely daughter
Can't say I liked your dog
But I can't wait to meet your father
I liked you a lot
But your sister's so much hotter

Now that we are dating
Please try not to hate me
Pretend that I was never into you
Don't make this a big deal
We can't help how we feel
Don't make it awkward
Next time I come over

You're beautiful
Wonderful
You were fine til your sister caught my eye

Dinner was rad
Had a conversation with your brother
But your sister's so much hotter
