I'll give you away

Shutting down
The lamps of our house will shut down
The rooms will be empty
one by one
In the silence there's two by the bed sides
Two exhausted
happy only? in their dreams

(Chorus:)

I'll give you away
I'll let you go
Although it hurts
You'll give me away
You'll let me go
We'll get used to it

We'll just smile
There's nothing else to give Slowly we'll give each other away

Too much
I always thought too much of us
I promised, I'll fix everything
Time after time
Your hands are slipping from mine
The sounds are diminishing

(Chorus:)
