I got a plan
I'm waiting to be taken back
To the place I saw you last
Now just a photograph

So many people there
We loved every good thing we shared
Because that was the time we cared
For no-one else

Summerfish
Makes me feel like dancing with my first kiss
Rolling in the sandy shore, we double in
Down to sun fading to gray

I'll be the moonshine
Makes me feel I'll never leave the sunlight
And now that you're inside me I'm a straight line
Stars are dying in to the waves

I caught a plane
I need to see you there again
Feel you touching on my skin
Watch our world begin

So many people there
We loved every good thing we shared
Because that was the tÃme we cared
For no-one else
