There's a war outside your window
You belong to this machine but you carry on so natural(so natural)

How do you do it?
A big bright smile and a face of an angel.
How do you do it?
How do you live with yourself now?

I found a place where I can hide it's right behind these ribs of mine.
(I tried so hard)

All 24 can vouch for me, I keep this heart locked up and out of reach.
(To leave this place all behind)

So brace yourself because these hands are red again.
We can't all back down from what we believe
(Hold fast stay strong for me)
We're waiting for a sign to breath again

There's a war outside your window
You belong to this machine but you carry on so
natural(so natural)

How do you do it?
A big bright smile and a face of an angel.
How do you do it?
How do you live with yourself now?
We can't all back down from what we believe
(Hold fast stay strong for me)
We're waiting for a sign to breath again
Brace yourself!
These hands are red again!
Brace yourself!
These hands are red!
Red!
These hands are red again!

(We are the voices in the night as we sing)
We are the Voices in the night as we sing

We can't be afraid of anything.
