Just bring us back
Just bring us back
its all been told, I swear I've been here before

could you stand by and watch or would you have to turn away as this breeze delivers warning and your ships about sink let me see what your made of open your eyes and step outside we're all disposable but who's accountable

no regrets, no mistakes at all just bring us back and we can make this past correct
no regrets, no mistakes at all

I'll break your fall, just tell me when and where you are I'll break your fall, just tell them we survived it all it's hard to pick yourself back up well no one said this would be easy I'm trying

its all we ever asked of you honest effort and a reason to believe that all things you said were true

just bring us back and we can make this past correct
no regrets, no mistakes at all

just bring us back and we can make this past correct

I've been mistaken for a life saver and I won't be your savior

I'll break your fall.
