Always and Never

In the woods at night oh no it don't seem right no, no never go out alone cause it's always happy for a bone you must be sure to keep away if you wanna live
to see another day
you should always be aware go challenge faith if you dare
go challenge faith if you dare

No more forever
always and never
always and always and never

You never know when It shows but you'll always know when it is much too late it is not, not looking for a date you must be sure to keep away
if you wanna live,
go challenge faith if you dare

always and never

always and never

(you should always be aware X 4)
