I will show, the whole world, that I can be its master
I will perfect, my own race of people,
That will survive disaster

Hunted and despised, I have no home,
Living like a beast, this concrete jungle is where I roam

Cruising down Hollywood, oh yeah, I've come so far
In the search for Bela Lugosi's star

My own race, of atomic supermen
Together we'll conquer the universe
We'll make our rules, and I'll free mankind
From this terrible curse

Hunted and despised, I have no home,
Living like a beast, this concrete jungle is where I roam

Cruising down Hollywood, oh yeah, I've come so far
In the search for Bela Lugosi's star

With the big wide smile on his face
And bleeding from the wound on his head
On the curb by Bela's star, on a rainy November night,
They found him stiff, cold, and stone dead

Hunted and despised, I have no home,
Living like a beast, this concrete jungle is where I roam

Cruising down Hollywood, oh yeah, I've come so far
In the search for Bela Lugosi's star
