"Bloodtide"

See those women laugh and smile, doing the twisting by the pool
See those surfers ride with style and everything is cool Take a walk on a beach of mine, in the warm and setting sun
Seems like everything's all right, you know there's something wrong

It's bloodtide, don't dare to wash your hands
You know it's blood, bloodtide

Hidden deep beneath the waves a body slowly moves around Everybody think they're safe until its washed upon the ground
Hitten by the smell of death you slowly walk away Watch the ocean turning red, there's no reason left to stay

It's bloodtide, don't dare to wash your hands
You know it's blood, bloodtide (2x)

Creature from the black lagoon, Nemo, Jaws and Moby Dick
Turn their eyes upon the moon, despising a world that's turning sick Killed in a 1000 horror nights without a chance for self defense Seven seas are raised for fight, now the ocean takes revenge
