monuments are standing tall see them break watch them fall blinded by a promised word don't believe in what you've heard been asleep for a thousand years determination in his eyes swimming in the sea of tears he's brought back to life symbols from a long gone time don't be a fool oh no don't stand up in line redeem yourself and see it through there is no way out now it's up to you

see him grow watch him rise it's about time you wake up and realize from beyond he emerge
you can call in your search
