Demonspeed, buckle up, going fast
Like there is no tomorrow
The future, the present
And the past, time stands still
There is no joy and there is no sorrow

Life goes on and I do my best to feel fine
Time heals all wounds
There is no need for me to whine
Let the self proclaimed king keep his crown
You know what's up, I know what's down

The love, the hate, and the question
Will forever remain.. why oh why?
Why not, who fucking cares
One man's loss is another man's gain

Life goes on and I do my best to feel fine
Time heals all wounds
There is no need for me to whine
Let the self proclaimed king keep his crown
You know what's up, I know what's down

Hang tight, keep up, tag along,
It's now or it's never
Birth, life, and the end,
If you miss it, it might be gone forever

Life goes on and I do my best to feel fine
Time heals all wounds
There is no need for me to whine
Let the self proclaimed king keep his crown
You know what's up, I know what's down
