good morning class(go)

life is like a school no applications just pick your class no matter how smart, any old fool is accepted and theres no exams to pass high grades or low grades you'll get to choose your very own class mates, some of them you'll lose others stay to the bitter end and that goes for both fiend and friend semper fi, u graduate & then u die nekro high 4 life until u die u graduate ^ then it's goodbye your time here can seem very short so why not get the best out of it true friends will show their support get rid of the ones that don't give a shit for once in your life let loose and have fun after each moon there'll be yet another sun your destiny depends on a choice there's more than one path to rejoice

when you think you do right you can be wrong in your teachers eyes grab the chance when in sight just follow the flow and improvise 24/7 school is all year long bad times leaves scars but make your strong enjoy while you can is the recipe to die a happy man

don't think you'll get saved by the bell when class is over its time to go on your way to to tour heaven or hell a graduation party 6 feet below don't let yourself dictate by the pure they're mind-slaves ignorant and insecure remember your in control there ain't no rules in the school of rock'n'roll

neko high 4 life until u die
