nails are pulled out one by one
they laugh at you they having fun in hell... crippled creeps in slimy graves will drag you through the burning waves in hell... sweat and fear drives you insane
you gonna learn to love the pain in hell... what is right will turn out wrong
you will miss the time when pain is gone in hell... they are slowly slowly chopping of your head you will meet your everlasting death in hell...
