Well I was riding with my brother on the prairie late one night,
I realized it was full moon and I felt this ancient rage inside,

I jumped off my horse and as I killed it, I heard myself growl,
When I ate up my brother the wolfs up in the hills they began to howl,
I? wanted, dead or alive, nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide,

I? wanted dead or alive [2x]
Well I went into the nearest town and I paid a visit to the local morgue,
The sheriff he ran after me but I blew his brain out, just like a dog

Now I? running I? being hunted down in every state I? so sorry for those nasty things I did but now it? too late
I? wanted dead or alive [2x]
hide,*
[Solo]

hide,*
I? wanted dead or alive [2x]
