You feel the weight of imposition
Bear heavy on your own decision
Fate to face
They multiply
The crush of language and the cedent schoolties
The subtle angles of tradition

Eton for portent
St. Paul's for context
Oxbridge for vision
No need to make this popular

One man for progress
One man for past tense
One man for vision
No need to make this popular

With your school cap
Blowing in the breeze
It's about time
That we made education
Not a funnel but a wide line

Neet to youth
As gove to tact
1 million faces
That are staring straight past
This mix of ignorance
And fission

Eton for portent
St. Paul's for context
Oxbridge for vision
No need to make this popular

One man for progress
One man for past tense
One man for vision
No need to make this popular

I'd rather starve

Than become a member
Of your old boys club
Sooner depart
Than see the ascension of the bullingdon
Because I want to make a breakthrough
A tired addendum
To working hard
