Standin' in the break of a yawn where you done left me alone

There's nothin' happenin' to hide

Sittin' in the shade of the lawn as everybody goes home

There's nothin' left here to find

Standin' with my back to the wall

Mindin' the sky as it's fallin' all around me

Listenin' for a break in the rain

For it's not drownin' my pain anymore

Standin' in the shade of the yard where everybody works hard

And everybody is dyin'

Walkin' up the town boulevard where I'm found out as a fraud

And there's nobody who's buyin'
