The changing tide
The waves of doubt that cloud my mind
They flood
The waters rise
All hope is now bleeding from my eyes
Upon this sinking ship I rest
My heart, lungs aching
It's much too hard to sail alone at night

So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so
So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so

Stand by my side
Hold tight and let the waves capsize
Rain fall and follow blind
Through failed attempts we feel more confined
With my last breath I'll scream out till my lungs are aching
We've come to far to give up on the fight

So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so
So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so

So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so
So stay with me
Cause all that I need is all I believe in, so
(All I believe in, so)
(All I believe in, so)
