So you think you can tell
Who I am
But I'm not sure,
Anymore.
You keep searching the same places
But I'm not there
I'm not there
Anymore

I could take your weary hand oh Darling,
But I can't, keep you from falling and
You use to want me but
Now you just need me
Oh darling
I think you need me
More than I need you

I don't know how it happen,
But it did
And I stayed. My mistake.
I don't know why it happen
But you can't pretend
That you don't know
The reason why

I could take your weary hand oh Darling,
But I can't, keep you from falling and
You use to want me but
Now you just need me
Oh darling
I think you need me
More than I need you
