Ooh, yeah

What are you crying for?
Don't you know that your falling tears
Are just a thin disguise?
Baby, I'm on to you
Always pleading your innocence
With those guilty eyes

Hanging by a thread
For your love to come around
Now the ties are broken
I'm crashing to the ground

Oh, can't you see
My heart's in bits and pieces?
It comes as no surprise
After all your lies
I was a fool to believe in
Those empty tears you cried

How long was it going on?
Could it be you were deceiving me
Right from the start?
I'll never forget the day I came back
Just to find you in someone
Else's arms

I let the passion blind me
When the truth was plain to see
Made the chains that bind me
And I just can't break free

Can't you see
My heart's in bits and pieces?
It comes as no surprise
After all your lies
I was a fool to believe in
Those empty tears you cried

Oh, can't you see
Our love's in bits and pieces?

A nightmare's coming true
All because of you
Now that the promise is broken

Little bits and pieces
After all your lies
I was a fool to believe you
My heart's in bits and pieces

I'm hanging by a thread
For your love to come around
Now the ties are broken
I'm crashing to the ground

Can't you see
My heart's in bits and pieces?
Comes as no surprise
After all your lies
I was a fool to believe in
Those empty tears you cried

Oh, can't you see
Our love's in bits and pieces?
A nightmare's coming true
All because of you
Now that the promise is broken

Oh, can't you see
My heart's in bits and pieces, yeah?
Oh, can't you see?
Our love's in bits and pieces
All because of you
Little bits and pieces, yeah
Oh, can't you see?
My heart's in bits and pieces
