Ooooo girl

I hope these words can say
Exactly what I'm feeling here today
I thought that I would never love again
But then you came and shaped my heart again

I know that I felt someone special in you forever
I can live my life always with us together I know
That you were placed here with me by angels
Girl my happiness began when I laid my eyes on you

When I saw you eyes enjoying life
A peace that only comes from up above
I lose my breath when you're near
So I'd rather be breathless

I believe that we will bring to earth
A special gift of love for all it's worth
You will see please believe
I'd rather be breathless

I close my eyes to see
The light that will begin through you and me
I'm proud of what the love in us could bring
Anything to save this world again I love you

I know that I felt someone special in you forever
I can live my life always with us together I know
That you were placed here with me by angels
Girl my happiness began when I laid my eyes on you

When I saw you I was enjoying life
A peace that only comes from up above
I lose my breath when you're near
So I'd rather be breathless

I believe that we will bring to earth
A special gift of love for all it's worth
You will see please believe
I'd rather be breathless
