Since the very first time when your eyes met mine I've been making a habit of crossing the line
I want you-do you want me too? well, do ya?
Since your push came to shove I'm a fool for your love-going way too far just isn't enough
I want you-do you want me too?

Would I give in if it's ever a tie?
Would I take the fall if you're caught in a lie?
Would I always jump then say, "how high? "

Well I have to admit I'm a lunatic-acting crazy for you,
I'm committed to it
I want you-do you want me too?
I was jekyll, now I'm hyde-yeah dignity-wise I got plenty of room left to swallow more pride
Just say, "i do"... that you want me too

Would I be the steel between you and a gun?
Would I be the glue when you're comin' undone?
Would I always swear you look much too young?
I would if you want me to

Would I cut a deal when you're payin' your dues?
Would I vote no on my right to choose?
Would I throw away my walkin' shoes?
I would if you want me to
I would if you want me to

To tell you the truth there ain't no use denying you're my what, when, where and why Put me to the test and I'll put to rest any doubt in your mind

Would I get real when you're being a fake?

Would I counter every bad move you make?
Would I let you have all the time you could take?
I would if you want me to

Would I take you home when you've got nowhere to go?
Would I call the cops when you're stealing the show?

Would I knock you down when the bombs gonna blow?

I would if you want me to

I would if you want me to

I would if you want me to
