Come on over, now don't be shy
All your stars and your planets are 'bout to align
Why not surrender to the gleam in my eyes?
Come and get it, before it dies

Ooh, afraid to take a chance
Been victimized by circumstance
Well, gather up your fears and let 'em go
That's over now, that's over now

I'll be your friend when you need one to turn to
Just call out my name and I'll always be there
Wherever you go just remember I love you
Whenever you start to feel the pain
I'm only a moment away, ooh moment away

Dust off the ashes and take my hand
I will pull you away from the quick in the sand
Tonight is the night we reach the promised land
When you whisper that I'm your man

Ooh, you're clinging to the past
Scared to go too far too fast
Well, nothing is gonna change till you let go
I'll show you how, I'll show you how

I'll be your friend when you need one to turn to
Just call out my name and I'll always be there
Wherever you go just remember I love you
Whenever you start to feel the pain
I'm only a moment away

I'll show you how, I'll show you how

I'll be your friend when you need one to turn to
Just call out my name and I'll always be there
Wherever you go just remember I love you
Whenever you start to feel the pain
I'm only a moment away

I'll be your friend when you need one to turn to
Just call out my name and I'll always be there

Wherever you go just remember I love you
Whenever you start to feel the pain
I'm only a moment away
