I used to swear I'd die alone
No one could fence me in That wedding vows were out of style
And bands of gold don't fit

But she made me a believer when she said that she'd
be mine
With the words "i do" all my dreams came true (since) she said she'd be mine it's been good to be alive

(yeah, yeah, yeah)

A love life of near mrs.
Did the talkin' when I said
That princesses were fairytales
And magic's just for kids

be mine
(since) she said she'd be mine it's been good to be alive
(yeah, I'm sayin')
She said she'd be mine-it's been good to be alive

Every time she called my name
The angels sang along
And when she held me close to her
My restless heart was home

Now every night is christmas eve
'cause she lays gently by
And I see my unborn children
When I look into her eyes

Yes, she made me a believer when she said that she'd
be mine
With the words "i do" all my dreams came true
(since) she said she'd be mine it's been good to be a
Tried and true believer since she said she'd be mine
With the words "i do" all my dreams came true

Since she said she'd be mine it's been good to be alive

(now I'm singing')

She said she'd be mine it's been good to be alive

(yeah, yeah, yeah)
