When hearts are blessed with a fire and steals our faith
We decide to get rid of desires that we can't escape How much more your tired heart can take The time will show that our secrets won't be safe

I won't let go of things that I was dreaming
I won't let go of you, you keep me believing and deep in my heart there's a place that I could never show to you
I won't let go of you, my dear

If we trust our love to take us to a place unknown Even we're not sure if we could get back on our own
No way out, I am tired heart can tell It breaks me down, it kills me

I won't let go of things that I was dreaming
I won't let go of you, you keep me believing Deep in my heart there's a place that I could never
show to you
I won't let go of you my dear

I won't let go of things that I was dreaming
I won't let go of you, you keep me believing
And deep in my heart there's a place that I could never
show to you
And deep in my heart there's a place that I could never
show to you
I won't let go of you my dear
