"Night After Night"

Night after night and all through the morning
Night after night, I'll wait for you
Try as I might the shadows are forming
Night after night, what can I do

Baby, when you come home
I'm never gonna let you leave me
Alone, without my man
Lord knows I'm doing the best I can

I know my man works for a living
I know my man, he works for me
I know I will always forgive him
All I can say, all I can see

Baby, when you come home
I'm never gonna let you leave me
Alone, without my man
My lord knows I'm doing the best I can
I'm still alone without my man
Lord knows I'm doing the best I can
I'm all alone without my man
My lord knows I'm doing the best I can
The best I can
