I know that I can never understand,
How hard it is for you to plan your life around me.
It's never easy when I go away,
And I can always say when it's gonna be.

And I know it's getting harder now to be everything you found
Along time a go when we made plans together.
And when I tell you I'm going now I see your face drop down
And if it's hurting me, it must be killing you, it must be killing you.

And that's why I am sorry,
That your everything I ever wanted,
Cause every time I am gone it's gonna be hurting you,
And kills me that you could be crying,
Every single night when while I sing,
It's all part of the goodbye thing,
And now I'm trying to, tell you that I'm sorry.

Don't let it get you down, you'll be okay.
I know it's easy to say when I'm not alone.
But every night once the funs been had,
I'm missing you that bad, and it's hurting me.
And you know it's getting harder now,
To be everything you found, along time ago when first made plans together.
And when I tell you that I'm going now, I see your face
drop down,
And If it's hurting me, it must be killing you. It must be killing you.

And that's why I am sorry,
That your everything I ever wanted,
Cause every time I am gone it's gonna be hurting you,
And kills me that you could be crying,
Every single night while I sing,
It's all part of the goodbye thing,
And now I'm trying to, tell you that I'm sorry.

And I know it's all to much to take, Sometimes.

But every show is apart of a dream of mine, a dream of mine.

A dream of mine.

And I know when I'm not around you get down singin' a song so listen out, cause it's your sound, it's just a matter of time until I'm back in your town but now it's time to shine.

And I know when I'm not around you get down singin' a song so listen out, cause it's your sound, it's just a matter of time until I'm back in your town but now it's time to shine.

And that's why I am sorry,
That your everything I ever wanted,
Cause every time I am gone it's gonna be hurting you,
And kills me that you could be crying,
Every single night while I sing,
It's all part of the goodbye thing,
And now I'm trying to, tell you that I'm sorry.
