They call me Alice in Wonderland
They try to lure me with a man
The Queen of Hearts will start the show
By setting me up just so you can let me go
Oh, whattaya know, is that a rabbit hole?
Oh, I gotta see where it goes

Off with my head, I fell in love again
Off with my head, I fell in love again
You lose your head, you lose your he-art
Fall apart, fall apart...

I'm feeling dizzy, your majesty
Say, would you like a cup of my tea?
I really would appreciate if you leave me some escape
It's getting very, very late
Oh great, I'm hanging on to every word that you said
I can't help myself from painting your roses red

Off with my head, I fell in love again
Off with my head, I fell in love again
You lose your head, you lose your he-art
Off with my head, I fell in love again
Off with my head, I fell in love again
You lose your head, you lose your he-art
Fall apart, fall apart...

Oh, I beg your pardon but was it nonsense, what we had
Cause who are you, my love, I really think I'm going mad

Off with my head, I fell in love again
Off with my head, I fell in love again
You lose your head, you lose your he-art
Off with my head, I fell in love again
Off with my head, I fell in love again
You lose your head, you lose your he-art
Fall apart, fall apart...
