I've got my legs wrapped around you
You have my heart in your hand
I'm lying here, begging for mercy
I want you to be my man, be my man

Change your mind between my thighs
Maybe down there you'll realize
Gasping for air, then you will care about me, about me
Change your mind, I know you won't resist
You've never felt anything like this Change your mind between my thighs, change your mind

Yeah, it's too late, I've lost all control
Can't you see it in my eyes, you've got such a hold
And I'm not letting go and I won't be denied, be denied

Change your mind between my thighs
Maybe down there you'll realize
Change your mind, I know you won't resist
You've never felt anything like this
mind

Lick my lips, find peace between my hips
Touch my soul, lose control, lose control, lose control...

Change your mind between my thighs
Maybe down there you'll realize
Change your mind between my thighs, change your
mind
Change your mind, I know you won't resist
You've never felt anything like this
mind
