I don't want to say I love you but I do
I don't want to say I miss you but it's true
I can hardly carry on sweetheart since you've been gone
I don't want to say I love you but I do

Chorus

Well I tried to tell my heart that I can get on without you
But my heart's just not the foolin' kind
No matter how I fight it, there's no use to hide it
I can't get you off my mind

I don't want to find another new love that is true
For there's no one else could take the place of you
So I'll just hope and pray that you'll return some day
I don't want to say I love you but I do

Chorus

I don't want to find another new love that is true
For there's no one else could take the place of you
So I'll just hope and pray that you'll return some day
I don't want to say I love you but I do
I don't want to say I love you but I do
