If you believe

Deep in your heart and things that aren't possible suddenly

If you believe

A wish upon a star might really come true from me because

If you believe

That reindeer can fly there's a moment it's seems impossible on Christmas Eve in the night
While children asleep when Santa comes by in delivery gifts, only if

If you believe

Run to the edge of your dreams and jump over the side at least once in your Life
It's time to start spreading your wings and take to the sky

If you believe

In just what you see and I don't is if magical can it possible it be and Open your mind and repeat after me anything you can imagine can be achieved

If you believe

I have to believe it

If you believe
