Forgive my heart, Forgive my mind,
They don't understand, that I have no reason to lie,
Could run but there's nowhere to hide,
Take me as I am.

I can hear, the beat of a breaking heart,
Soaking in tears, but this time I've gone too far.

I need your soul, I need your grace,
'Cause you see through my disguise,
I still got your taste in my mouth,
I still feel your hands on my skin,
And as I close my eyes.

I can hear, the beat of a breaking heart,
Soaking in tears, but this time I've gone too far.

And maybe tonight,
I'll fight not to fall apart,
How are we here,
When it's just the start?

I can hear, the beat of a breaking heart,
Soaking in tears, but this time I've gone too far.

And maybe tonight,
I'll fight not to fall apart,
How are we here,
When it's just the start?
