Losing love, losing my faith
The only thing she left me were all of my mistakes
The hardest time, the darkest place
Through a crack in the window I see your face
Shining, golden

And on my love you lift me up
On my love you come along
You filled my heart, replaced my faith
With a blinding light from a perfect place
And with all the love, all the love
All the love, there's more than enough
To build an empire
Build an empire

Heal these eyes, they've seen too much
I'm burned down and broken, come and lift me up
Get me out of here, take me away
All that I have left is a heart that needs to be saved
Shining, golden

And on my love you lift me up
On my love you come along
You filled my heart, replaced my faith
With a blinding light from a perfect place
And with all the love, all the love
All the love, there's more than enough
To build an empire
Build an empire

Losing my heart, losing my faith
Losing myself, now I'm not afraid
Cause in your light I find myself again

And on my love you lift me up
On my love you come along
You filled my heart, replaced my faith
With a blinding light from a perfect place
And with all the love, all the love
All the love, there's more than enough
To build an empire

Build an empire
