Choir:

'Haec damnata imeratrix Expectat te moriri quandocumque brevi'

Open your eyes and see she's only a chimera to thee
The celestial thought is only in your mind this feminine person is an atrocious kind

This doomed empress is waiting for you to perish anytime soon Don't look in her enchanting eyes for thou will swoon

The truth is not elusive so open your eyes and see Indulge in earthly thoughts and life will come to thee

Expose this gruesome lady Let her be reprimanded by her former Gods!

You're blinded by her diversion
Even though you're a righteous man Waiting for the enthronement but that is not her plan
