Can you hear me now, as I look into the night?
Today I told you so, but I know you're always right
If you can hear my now, I never wanted you (to go)
But now you're gone away, and I swear you'll never know...

tThe feelings that I have for you

One week, and still you're stick inside my head
I'm sorry; if you stay, I'll never leave your side

I sit alone at night
And I think of what we had
Your pictures seize the light and all the dreams that we turned bad
If I could take it back Believe me when I say, "I would"
Just don't forget me now
Even though you probably should...
Believe me, I know

One week, and still you're stuck inside my head,
I'm sorry; if you stay, I'll never leave you,
Don't leave me, my place has always been beside you,
If you go, I'll never, ever be the same again....
Without you to hold

Well, I'm not gonna sit around and waste my time
But you will always be inside my mind
Without you I'm nothing, and im losing my mind...
Please take me back(please take me back)

One week, and still you're stuck inside my head,
I'm sorry; if you stay, I'll never leave you,
Don't leave me, my place has always been beside you,
If you go, I'll never, ever be the same again....
Without you to hold
