hip hop to me is just a daily event but life can vary so much from one day to the next im payin respect but im hardly paying my rent.

paying my dues. but when do you start paying the checks i used to live in hawaii taking naps on the beach , now i work 80 hours break my back every week making rap thats unique and not that watered down rap sound but real hip hop is getting pushed to the background but life is tough

i know i gotta try and grin smilin

cause i know im always gonna rise again and dont get me wrong im still in love with the rap game a damn shame that everyone dont feel the exact same look i get it girls love shaking there ass its making me laugh cause everything there playing is trash no clubs showing love to real makers of rap so hear i am still breaking my back. my lifes a whirlwind

it has its up s and downs ive been high up but ive also drug the ground i still keep going cause i love the sound but thats just my life in the underground ive got my girl my dog . my bro and my mom .

im still bangin them tracks still holdin on im still doing hip hop still going strong and may my songs live on when im old and gone uze and kon

mike booth and louis too youre my crew mad thanks to all you do.

all the fans i got love for all of you and ima always keep it real always follow through ima make hip hop for whats left of the core fans to there girls showing fakes trying to fool the door man to the people front row everyone of my shows.

that clutch on tight to everyone of my flows to all the other rappers still doing it right making music that is usefell and is trhuthfully hype hip hop was once there, now ware taking in back and one of these days theyll be no more breaking my back.
