

Measured In Grey "Hallelujah"

Visit "Hallelujah" on MotoLyrics.com

in a lighting flash landscape/i saw your best plan laid out/
and there was so much more/in the arms that you carried/were the arms that held us dear/
and we were so let down/fill the canteens/pull up the stakes/you're burning everything that you can't take/and i'm left with nothing more/than the tracest evidence/ like some partial finger print/
that you left on the door/

right here and now/ we'll pick up our hearts and leave

right here and now/ we carry on, carry on/you run your mouth/and i'll run my business/teach you to say hallelujah/it seems you need some convincing/well we don't talk/we deal in lead/

in a lightning flash landscape/ i saw my best plan played out/
and there was nothing left/you won't change my mind/just save your breath/i told you secrets/that best stay kept/
now just let me forget/
