I swear/ that we've been here before/so lets just skip this part/no accords or treaties/ this is war and we've picked our sides/and we've drawn our lines/we watch the clocks and sharpen knives/we stock our arsenals/ that we both know we hide

we aim with our eyes/

we shoot with our minds/and we kill with our hearts/

the safteys off/ the guns are live/your sights are set/and you can bet that so are mine/and we're not so hard to find/we broadcast our coordinates at night/
