I could lay right here
For hours at a time
With nothing cloying but the dreams on my mind
So I close my eyes and I visualise
Will my life, and her life
Oh will be our lives combine And I can't wait for night to come then I can lay and just dream again
Ooh ooh
My alarm clock rings
And I wake up holding my pillow Another night gone by Counting days all alone
Maybe if I close my eyes I'll never wake up feeling love
Willing try anything coz I'm tired of crying for a dream
Do I have to fall asleep just imagining my life
And how beautiful it'd be if our dream girl never said goodbye
And I can't wait for night to come so I can lay and
just dream again
One day it'll come true
One day
So I close my eyes and I visualise
Every night I redo my steps to make sure I dream again
When they get it don't you baby not have admit it My better would be your body my dream I be my living And every moment with this chick girl m-m-make it worth it
Do I have to fall asleep just imaging my life
And how beautiful it'd be if our dream girl never
said goodbye
And I can't wait for night to come so I can lay and
just dream again
Do I have to fall asleep just imaging my life
And how beautiful we'd be if our dream girl never
said goodbye
So I keep waiting for the day when I will find her
I dream in love
Till then I lay
For hours at a time

With nothing cloying but the dreams on my mind
