i can hear noises through the walls i can hear footsteps down the hall in the middle of the night i woke up to a blinding light and i could hear your mother call oh but we didn't care, and i say...

i can hear boys in the girls' room hear girls in the boys' room, running around i can hear girls in the boys' room hear boys in the girls' room, running around and what will happen when we're gone will you remember how we were change your life, change your heart get ready for a brand new start it doesn't matter where you go i want you everywhere, and i say...

i'm dying to see you coming around...
